

Brandles Home School Agreement

Alone we can do so little together we can do so much

We hope to provide pupils with the desire to learn and the ability to study in a safe environment where relationships between pupils and teachers are based on mutual trust and respect. We provide flexible teaching and learning styles to develop independent learners. Through a wide range of lessons we can provide our pupils with the skills and confidence to be able to find employment or further their education.

Our pupils education depends on a positive three way partnership between the pupils, the pupils parents or carers and the school.

Each having rights and responsibilities.
