BRANDLES SCHOOL UNIFORM

Brandles uniform consists of:

- No Hoodies
- Black sweatshirts (hoodie material but without the hood) or black jumpers
- Underneath should be plain white tops: a shirt (long or short sleeve), polo shirt or t-shirt
- Black trousers, shorts or joggers - no denim or cargo style with multiple pockets.
- All-black shoes or trainers - no visible colours.
- School black trousers - no jeans, tracksuit trousers, or similar

Jewellery

No metal jewellery is permitted.

Pupils are permitted to wear a watch (No metal parts) - but must be responsible for taking care of it.

Necklaces and rings are not allowed, but a small stud in the ear is acceptable.

Other piercings are not permitted.

Hair Care

The school expects pupils' hair to be clean and tidy.

Long hair should be tied back if requested and patterns and designs in short hair are not permitted.

Coloured hair is not permitted unless agreed with the Headteacher.

Personal Equipment

Students are wanded with metal detectors on entry to the school.

Students' bags and coats are handed in before going into the main building. Coats and bags will be placed in a locked cupboard. Phones are placed into a safe.

The exception is Level2 Students who will keep phones in Level 2.

Personal items (phones, keys, etc.) are given in on arrival at school and kept safe in individually labelled wallets and returned at the end of the school day.

Personal items found on pupils during the day will be confiscated until a parent or carer can collect them.

School uniform is important to us and we will be expecting all pupils to wear all the correct uniform.
